

Mid-tier UX Consultant - Central London (competitive salary)

RedEye optimum.web is looking for a sharp and highly capable person to join a friendly, growing Web UCD/UX and optimisation team, working with major brands across the financial, retail/fashion, travel and gaming sectors. Work with and learn from an experienced team and help build leading edge UX and optimisation services.

Who we are looking for:

- You will be passionate about User Experience and User-Centred Design.
- You will have 1-2 years agency or client-side experience as a UX/Usability practitioner, including the moderation of usability testing sessions.
- You have started to build your UX/UCD practitioner commercial experience – leading and delivering projects.
- You may have gone onto further your UX credentials, possibly with an MSc in HCI or related subject.
- You are able to work directly with clients and contribute to new business opportunities.
- You are always determined to deliver projects on time and to exceed the quality expectations.

Skills required:

- Proven usability testing moderation skills.
- Wireframing and prototyping (UX design).
- Excellent communication skills – written, verbal, and presentation.
- Excellent team working skills.
- You will have an excellent aptitude for working with data and are comfortable using intermediate to advanced Excel spreadsheet functions and features.
- You will be comfortable learning and using new software, and do not require formal training in order to quickly understand how to get the most out of the tools available to you.
- Nice to have – understanding and experience with Google Analytics, or other web analytics solutions
- Nice to have – understanding and experience with XHTML/CSS.
- Nice to have – technical and UX understanding of web accessibility.
- You must be eligible to work in the UK – right now, not in the future.
- You must have fluent written and spoken English.

Benefits:

- A friendly, highly experienced and passionate UCD/UX team in which you will immediately become a key member.
- The chance to shape projects from beginning to end.
- Work with leading brands.
- A real opportunity to engage in ongoing R&D work to shape our range of products and services.
- A 'posh' working environment in Belgravia, located immediately adjacent to the heart of Victoria. Clients love it and so will you.
- 5 weeks holiday.
- Competitive salary.
